NuWave Technology Partners Expands in Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS, MI – April 01, 2014 – CBRE|Grand Rapids (CBRE) is pleased to announce that NuWave Technology Partners (NuWave), one of Michigan's leading information technology providers, has leased 2,297sq. ft. of office space within 4079 Park East Court SE.

A Michigan-based company, NuWave specializes in a complete portfolio of IT and voice communications solutions. With its headquarters in Kalamazoo, NuWave services the surrounding areas via offices in both Lansing and Grand Rapids. Previously located at 4180 44th Street SE, the move nearly doubles the size of the company's Grand Rapids office, reflecting NuWave's continued growth and expanding share of the West Michigan market.

CBRE associates Dan VanKalker and Nate Scherpenisse provided site selection and tenant representation services on behalf of NuWave. The CBRE team conducted an exhaustive site search of the southwest submarket, with a primary focus on securing highway visibility and room for future expansion.

"The CBRE team combed the market for just the right location," said Kyle Paalman, Managing Partner for NuWave Technology. "Their market knowledge was apparent, and they dedicated themselves to finding a site that satisfied all our requirements. As a result, we look forward to broadening our client base and serving the Grand Rapids area more effectively."
